THE NATIONAL SKILLS AUTHORITY (NSA) CONGRATULATES THE SETAs ON THEIR UNQUALIFIED AND CLEAN AUDITS

In accordance with the Skills Development Act (SDA), SETAs must use the moneys received only in the prescribed manner, prepare annual budgets, annual reports and financial statements. The Auditor General must audit the accounts, financial statements and report on the audits to the Minister and in that report express an opinion on whether the SETAs has complied with the provisions of the SDA, and its constitution relating to financial matters.

Thirteen SETAs received unqualified audit opinions from the Auditor General implying that the SETAs had findings on predetermined objectives and/or compliance. In addition, there were eight SETAs that received clean audit opinions, implying that there were no findings on predetermined objectives and compliance.
